

Huntsville Symphony Orchestra Guild
Young Peoples' Concert
Cover Art Contest
Fourth Grade Students

Dear Principals and Teachers,

The Symphony Orchestra (HSO) and the Huntsville Symphony Orchestra Guild (HSOG) are proud to present the 53rd annual Young Peoples' Concert in the Mark C. Smith Concert Hall on February 26, 2021. Please go to HSO.org/education-community/Young-peoples-concerts/ to register. Gregory Vajda, HSO Music Director and Conductor will lead orchestra members in a performance of Carnival of the Animals. We invite your fourth grade students to participate in the Young Peoples' Concert Cover Art Contest.

The students' artwork should have a Carnival of the Animals theme. The award winning drawings in the past are most successful when taught as a lesson in graphic design. The first place winning artwork will appear on the cover of the YPC booklet that students receive prior to attending the concert. Other place winners and honorable mentions will be featured inside the program/activity booklet.

Deadline for the entries is Mon. Nov. 16, 2020.

CONTEST RULES -Entries that do not comply will be disqualified

- Use 8'x11" white paper with black ink (sharpies work best)
- Artwork must be drawn vertically
- On the back in pencil (only)-print student name, age, school, and teacher's name – must be legible!
- Artwork must be executed by the student
- Teachers: Please return entries to:
Belinda Ivy
54 St. James Square
Huntsville, AL 35801
or request Belinda to have the entries picked up at your school by calling her at 256-714-4886.
- We are sorry but entries will not be returned.

Thank you, we look forward to your participation,

Belinda Ivy for HSOG